

NED UNIVERSITY OF ENGINEERING & TECHNOLOGY

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE

URBAN GOVERNANCE AND SOCIAL INEQUALITY IN PAKISTAN

A Critical Study of Urban Administration, Public Services, and Inequality

PAKISTAN STUDIES (ES-105) ASSIGNMENT

GROUP PRESENTATION

SUBMITTED BY (Group Members & Topics):

DUA FAROOQ (CT-25058)	— [Social Sciences and Urban Framework]
AMNA CHOUDHRY (CT-25063)	— [Governance and Public Safety]
EMAN SIDDIQUI (CT-25072)	— [Karachi Case Study]
SYEDA FAIZA ASLAM (CT-25064)	— [Urban Inequality and Citizen's Experiences]
HAFSA NASIR (CT-25068)	— [Public Trust and National Impact]
MAHREEN (CT-25069)	— [Policy Analysis and Strategic Recommendations]

SUBMITTED TO: MS. SIDRA ZAKI

SEMESTER: 1st YEAR (SPRING)

SECTION: B

SUBMISSION DATE: Wednesday, 11 February 2026

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

1. SOCIAL SCIENCES AND URBAN FRAMEWORK:

- 1.1 Introduction: Urban Governance and Social Inequality.
- 1.2 Cities as Mirrors of National Development.
- 1.3 Overview of Presentation: Challenges, Causes & Solutions.
- 1.4 Concept of Urban Governance.
- 1.5 Urbanization and Population Pressure.
- 1.6 Development Imbalance and Inequality.

2. GOVERNANCE AND PUBLIC SAFETY:

- 2.1 Institutional Structures
- 2.2 Regulatory and Safety Mechanisms
- 2.3 Implementation Challenges

3. KARACHI CASE STUDY:

- 3.1 Karachi as an Economic Hub
- 3.2 Governance Challenges and Service Delivery
- 3.3 Gul Plaza Incident (Analytical Review)

4. URBAN INEQUALITY & CITIZEN'S EXPERIENCES:

- 4.1 Access to Basic Services
- 4.2 Housing and Livelihood Challenges
- 4.3 Social Inclusion and Participation

5. PUBLIC TRUST AND NATIONAL IMPACT:

- 5.1 Trust in Institutions
- 5.2 Media and Public Perception
- 5.3 Social Cohesion and National Unity

6. POLICY ANALYSIS AND STRATEGIC RECOMMENDATIONS:

- 6.1 Strengthening Local Governance
- 6.2 Digital Governance and Transparency
- 6.3 Long-Term Planning for Sustainable Cities
- 6.4 Conclusion: Cities as the Heart of Pakistan
- 6.5 Final Remarks: Reform, Accountability, Equity and Inclusion